PRENDERGAST SAVED.

Carter Harrison's Assassin Gets a New Lease of Life.

TWO WEEKS' RESPITE GRANTED

A Jury Will Be Called on to Pass Upon the Question of His Sanity—The Governor and Lieutenant Governor Both Refuse to Interfere With the Execution. A Midnight Hearing.

CHICAGO, March 23.—Prendergast, the murderer of Carter H. Harrison, will not hang today. By an almost unprecedented plan of procedure his attorneys managed late last night to secure him a fortnight's respite, during which a jury will pass upon the question of his sanity.

When the state supreme court refused a supersedeas Wednesday, Prendergast's attorneys took the case before the federal judges in this city on constitutional grounds, alleging that Prendergast's rights as a free man had been violated by the refusal of the trial court to allow him to talk to his counsel and to act as his own attorney if so chose.

The federal judges, after hearing the arguments, declined to grant the stay asked. Then the attorneys announced that they were proceeding on the basis of Prendergast's insanity having developed since his imprisonment. They telegraphed Governor Altgeld, who is in Biloxi, Miss., for a reprieve until a hearing could be had. The governor declined to act, he having left the lieutenant governor in the executive chair.

Mr. Gill was summoned to Springfield and two of the attorneys went there and spent several hours in a futile endeavor to secure a reprieve. Meanwhile, other of Prendergast's lawyers had begun work before Judge Chetlain, in whose court their efforts were finally rewarded with a stay of two weeks.

Having heard the arguments Judge Chetlain announced his decision extending the time of the execution of the sentence two weeks to April 6, and setting the commencement of the trial of the question as to the prisoner's sanity Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Said the judge: "The case as it now stands is as follows: The state has appeared and declared itself ready to proceed. It has conceded to the defendant the right to a trial. The court required the defense to introduce further evidence to make a prima facie case, raising a reasonable doubt as to the sanity of the prisoner.

"The question is not one of the guilt of the prisoner, but whether he, between the time of the judgment of the court and the execution of his sentence has become insane. The court has the power to empanel a jury and try this case.

"It is now nearly midnight, and it is apparent to counsel on both sides that the trial could not be conducted before the time appointed for the execution. Shall the court be left powerless to prolong the time of the execution of the sentence? From the authorities I am satisfied that the court has that inherent power.

"Now, has good cause been shown why the time of the execution should be prolonged? Two witnesses say that this man has become insane since the judgment of court. One testified to a change in his manner and less coherence in his language indicating insanity.

"Another witness at first believing that defendant had control over his action has, since the judgment of the court, become convinced that the defendant has no control over his actions, but is entirely irresponsible and insane.

"The question ought to be submitted to a jury and investigation be made quickly and duly. It would be inconsistent with humanity and justice to compel a trial at midnight. For the foregoing reasons the court will prolong the execution of Patrick Eugene Prendergast."

STORM STILL RAGING.

No Abatement of the Blizzard Throughout the Northwestern States.

OMAHA, March 23.—The blizzard that has been raging over the northwest for the past three days continues in western and central Nebraska, Wyoming and Black Hills. All trains on the Union Pacific between North Platte and Cheyenne are still tied up, but rotary plows are out, and great effort will be made to clear up the roads.

The snow has ceased falling west of Cheyenne, but a terrific gale is blowing. The snow varies in depth from a foot on a level at Sydney to four feet at Spearfish. The effect on cattle will be disastrous as all the big ranges of the state are in the district covered by the deep snow.

Proposed Animal Fight Will Be Stopped.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A large, fierce, grizzly bear was captured some time ago, and was purchased by Colonel Boone, the lion tamer. Among the other animals owned by Boone is a lion named Parnell, which has a record for killing numerous keepers. It was proposed to pit Parnell and the grizzly in the big cage of the arena at the midwinter fair and let them fight to a finish. Tickets at $20 were selling like hot cakes. The secretary of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals has had interviews with Mayor Elliott and the chief of police who assure him every assistance for preventing the brutal affair will be given.

Rich Gold Vein Discovered.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., March 23.—A rich gold vein has been discovered near Lewiston, in the South Pass country. Prospectors report it to be the richest and ever discovered in the Rocky mountains.

GOLD PRODUCTION.

Throughout the World It Amounted to $150,000,000 in 1893.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—A production of gold throughout the world of $150,000,000 for the calendar year 1893 is the latest estimate of the bureau of the mint, and the figures which have recently been received verify the estimates made early in the year. The gold production of 1892, as revised in the last report of the mint bureau, was $138,861,000.

The increase of $11,000,000 will be mainly furnished by the United States, South Africa and Russia.

The figures for the United States although not yet quite complete, indicate an increase of $4,000,000 over those for 1892; the increase in South Africa will be about $9,000,000, in Russia about $500,000 and in Australia also about $500,000. There will be small gains in other countries, including China and Japan, but they may be offset by small losses elsewhere.

The returns from Russia and Australia are not yet complete and may show an even larger increase than has been estimated by Mint Director Preston. The reports which are constantly reaching the treasury department indicate the production of gold is being pushed to its maximum, and that improved processes of extracting the metal will be used to their utmost limit to increase the output for 1894. Gold to the value of $90,000 was deposited within a day or two at the Denver mint, and like deposits are likely to come at frequent intervals during the remainder of the year.

DEFRAUCE CONVICTED.

A Noted Forger Who Will Be Heavily Dosed in Michigan.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 23.—Stonewall J. Defraunce of Detroit was convicted Thursday of forgery. The jury was out but a short time.

On Nov. 23, 1891, a forged draft of $12,500 was presented at the First National bank in this city by Lewis Forrest, representing himself about to buy a farm, and he obtained $5,000. Stonewall J. Defraunce under arrest at Detroit in the fall of 1893 answered to Forrest's description, and he was brought here charged with being Forrest and having committed the crime. Bank officers and others, who were brought into contact with Forrest, identified Defraunce as the man, although Forrest was disguised with a mustache and spectacles.

The defense attempted to prove an alibi. They claim that Defraunce attended church in Detroit at the same hour that Forrest attended church here. They introduced contracts made between Defraunce and certain Galvins on Nov. 24, 1891, at the same time that Forrest was securing his $5,000 in this city. The prosecution proved by a Detroit lawyer that he was hired by Defraunce to make these contracts and executed them in January, 1894, while Defraunce was in Kalamazoo jail. Defraunce is accused of similar crimes in Minneapolis and elsewhere, and officers have been waiting to rearrest him in case of his acquittal. He has not yet been sentenced.

Denver's Committee of Safety.

DENVER, March 23.—In consequence of the reports that large bodies of men are arriving to aid the governor in seating Mullins and Barnes in the fire and police boards if the supreme court does not answer his inquiry as to who are the lawful members, prominent citizens met Wednesday night and completed the organization of a committee of safety. They adopted resolutions in which they declare: "It shall be the duty of the committee by such means as may be determined upon to aid in the preservation of order, in preventing unseemly conflict and bloodshed in enforcing the decree of the supreme court in matters submitted."

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 23.—Mary Harper, aged 23, was found a mile below town in a nude condition and unconscious resulting from criminal assault. The woman was unable to tell who her assailants were. The authorities have begun a vigorous investigation.

Brass Workers' Strike.

CHICAGO, March 23.—At 6 o'clock last night 600 men, employed in the brass works department, joined the other 400 strikers at Crane Brothers company. The men employed at the Judd street works were asked to join, but so far only four men have left their posts.

DENVER, March 23.—Father Malone, editor of the Colorado Catholic, received an official communication from Right Rev. Montes DeOca, bishop of San Luis Potosi, which denies the report recently sent out that he had expelled the Jesuits from his diocese.

BIG FIRE IN DENVER.

Quarter of a Square Completely Destroyed.

PROPERTY LOSS OF $300,000.

The Recently Finished Six-Story Champa Building Now Nothing but a Mass of Ruins—The St. James Hotel Partly Destroyed—No Panic Created Among the Guests—List of Losses.

DENVER, March 23.—One of the most destructive and at the same time spectacular conflagrations ever seen in this city broke out at 6:15 p. m. yesterday in the recently finished 6-story Champa building on Champa street, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, and threatened for a time to sweep the entire block. The fire department worked with desperate energy and in spite of insufficient water pressure, conquered the flames after a quarter of the square was destroyed at a loss of $157,000.

The conflagration started in the rear basement of the Champa building among the furniture stock of Thompson & Company, from spontaneous combustion, and before the situation was realized the entire building of 100 feet frontage was a mass of flames. Between 6:45 and 7 o'clock p. m., the high east and west walls of the Champa building fell, crushing three 2-story structures to the east and two to the west, like egg shells; the back wall fell into the alley, but did comparatively little damage there. Then the front wall toppled over into Champa street, the concussion breaking all the glass in the buildings opposite.

The St. James, one of the largest hotels in the city, on Curtis street, back of the Champa building, caught fire and the rear part was destroyed; the guests were all gotten out without panic.

The losses were as follows: Champa building, owned by Weir & Skinner, loss $200,000, insured for $20,000; Thompson & Company, furniture, loss $20,000, insured for $4,000; I. N. Rogers, undertaker, a 3-story brick building, loss on building $15,000, insured for $10,000; on stock $10,000, insured for $5,000; Mrs. Ann Flaherty, loss on 2-story brick, corner Fifteenth street, loss $15,000, insured for $5,000; St. James hotel, owned by Wolf, Putnam & Company, loss $25,000, insured for $75,000; W. T. Clark, furniture, loss $5,000, insured for $12,000; Rodney Curtis, owner, loss $7,000, insured.

The losses of merchants and other tenants in the burned buildings amount to $300,000.

ANTI-LYNCHING LEAGUE PROTEST.

Governor Hogg of Texas Warned of a Threatened Outrage.

CHICAGO, March 23.—The following telegram has been sent to Governor Hogg of Texas by the newly organized colored anti-lynching league:

Governor Hogg, Austin, Tex.:

The anti-lynching league protests against the contemplated lynching of 16 men at Matagorda, in your state. If you take no action to protect them, we will hold you responsible for their murder.

JAMES D. CORBOTHERS, Secretary.

The officers of the league say that if the men are lynched they will make a test case and bring pressure to bear that will cause congress to appoint an investigating committee.

The formation of the league by the colored people has aroused considerable interest among the white people of the city. The Woman's Christian Temperance union of Chicago and President Gunsauls of the Armour institute will, it is stated, endeavor to form a Caucasian anti-lynching league.

The original league was formed by the colored people very recently with the object of exerting influence looking to the suppression of the frequent lynching of colored men. A platform was adopted and Fred Douglass elected president.

Denver's Troubles Nearly Over.

DENVER, March 23.—The supreme court has received the briefs presented by the attorneys for Governor Waite in his famous city hall case. The court expects to render an opinion some time Saturday. The contempt proceedings against Mayor Van Horn and others were continued before Judge Glyn, W. G. Evans, secretary of the Denver Tramway company, who has been accused of sending several hundred armed men to the city hall to aid Commissioners Orr and Martin in their fight against the governor, was the first witness called. He emphatically denied the charges and said he had advised pacific measures.

Army Post Robbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A sensation has been caused at the army post, situated on Angel Island, by the discovery that a large quantity of gunpowder and coal oil, which was stored on the bluff at some distance from the barracks, had been removed. It is thought that both citizens and soldiers are concerned in the robbery. Some of the stolen stores have been found at Tiburon, a small town near the post, and three citizens of that place have been arrested. Privates named Kingsmeyer and Wilson have also been placed under arrest, suspected of having been implicated in the robbery.

Hopes For a Settlement.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., March 23.—Mine Inspector Reed held a conference yesterday with the miners' committee. The miners said they would accept no other terms than $3 for an eight-hour shift, or when two shifts were worked a day, $3.25 for nine hours by day, and $3.25 for eight hours by night. Inspector Reed will meet the nine owners in Colorado Springs Saturday, and hopes to settle the strike by arbitration.

LESS THAN TWENTY MEN.

Coxey's "Great Army of Peace" Does Not Materialize.

MASSILLON, O., March 23.—The Coxey "army of peace" does not materialize. Not to exceed 20 men have yet put in an appearance here. The leaders of the movement still profess to believe that at least 1,000 men and may be more, will be ready to march when the army moves next Sunday.

Every day Coxey's mail is loaded down with letters from persons in various parts of the country, promising recruits to the ranks or subsistence of the army while it is on the road. The failure of the recruits to report at headquarters has given rise to suspicions in some quarters that the writers of the letters are trifling with Coxey. On the other hand reports from the towns within 40 or 50 miles of Massillon tell of bodies of tramps who say they are on their way to report to Commander Coxey.

STRIKE AT TOLEDO.

Street Railway Employees Refuse to Take Out Their Cars.

TOLEDO, March 23.—A strike was inaugurated on the lines of the Robinson Electric Street Railway company yesterday morning, 118 motormen and conductors refusing to take out their cars, pending the reinstatement of four men alleged to have been discharged for unionism. The management ran out a few cars in the afternoon and no violence was offered.

An injunction restraining the strikers from interfering with the operation of the lines was granted by the common pleas court in the afternoon, but, notwithstanding, the wires were cut in many places, and the men express confidence in an ultimate victory.

The affair will be made an issue in the municipal election.

MINISTER THURSTON RECALLED.

A Republican Form of Government to Be Established in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The Evening Post says it has positive information that letters recalling Lorin Thurston, Hawaiian minister to the United States, are now on their way to Washington, and that he was requested to hurry home as speedily as possible.

The News also says that a permanent republic government is about to be established in Hawaii, a statement partially confirmed by recent advices from Honolulu, and Minister Thurston's services are much desired at home to assist in furthering that thing.

Three Hundred Miners Idle.

POMEROY, O., March 23.—The Peacock coal mine, owing to a difference between the operators and the miners, will probably remain idle all summer, throwing 300 men out of employment. The miners remain firm in demanding 2 cents per bushel for mining as agreed in the general conference three weeks ago and the operators refuse to pay the price.

she Is Not an Helress.

MOORE'S HILL, Ind., March 23.—Miss Alice Hicks of Napoleon in a letter to a college friend denies the romantic story abroad to the effect that she has inherited a Texas fortune. Miss Hicks is known to have wealthy relatives both in Galveston and Houston, whose fortunes are probably concerned in this rumor.

Young Jokers Arrested.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 23.—Ten small boys placed a dummy on the street railway track and succeeded in frightening the motorman into the belief that he had run over a man. Squire Brush bound the little fellows over to court on the charge of malicious mischief and obstructing the railway track.

Iowa No Longer a Prohibition State.

DES MOINES, March 23.—The senate has passed the house liquor bill which has so long been under consideration, thus destroying the Iowa policy of state prohibition. The law provides for taxation of saloon property, and many conditions are required before the sale of liquor may be commenced.

THREE PEOPLE SHOT.

Boardinghouse Tragedy at Midvale, Pennsylvania.

THE RESULT OF A QUARREL.

One of the Victims a Two-Year-Old Child That Was in Its Mother's Arms at the Time It Was Shot—The Murderer Has a Narrow Escape From Being Lynched by an Angry Mob.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 23.—A bloody tragedy occurred at Midvale yesterday evening. John Sanders, a Polish boardinghouse keeper, had a quarrel with Mike Boshop, and fired at the latter with a rifle. The shot missed Boshop, but killed a 2-year-old boy in his mother's arms in an adjoining room. The second shot entered Boshop's body near the heart. Sanders then accused his wife of being too intimate with the boarders and shot her twice, in the leg and in the neck. The latter wound will probably prove fatal, and it is believed that Boshop can live but a few hours.

In less than an hour a mob of 500 gathered at Sanders and attempted to tear down the house. Sanders fired upon them until his ammunition was exhausted and was then arrested. An effort was made to lynch him, but the sheriff prevailed upon the mob to let the law take its course.

TRESPASSERS IN BEHRING.

Canucks Evidently Are About to Assume the Role.

OTTAWA, March 23.—Sir Richard Cartwright, in the house of commons, called the attention of the government to a statement in the American press to the effect that the American government has sent out a squadron to protect the seals going north to the breeding grounds in the Behring sea, and that it was the intention of these cruisers to deal with anyone trespassing against the regulations of the Paris tribunal. What he wanted to know was if these regulations were now binding and in force.

Sir John Thompson, in reply, said that the Paris tribunal had no force or validity upon British subjects until a statutory enactment had been passed by Great Britain. He did not believe that an American squadron had been sent. If any cruisers had been dispatched they were no doubt sent for the purpose of seeing that American sealers conformed to such laws as were passed by congress or are about to be passed by congress. Sir John said that the modus vivendi was not now in force.

A BARONESS AT THE BAR.

Mrs. Augusta Schmidt Tried For Murdering a Tenant at Kokomo, Ind.

KOKOMO, Ind., March 23.—The Augusta Schmidt murder case is on trial here. The special venire of 80 talesmen was exhausted and another special venire of 80 has been summoned. Most of next week will be taken up in securing the jury.

Mrs. Schmidt, who last October quarreled with Oscar Walten, a tenant on one of her father's farms, and shot him dead, is a wealthy German and is making a desperate fight for her liberty. The supreme court ruled against her on a motion to be admitted to bail and she has been in jail five months. Mrs. Schmidt is the foster daughter of the late Baroness Schlingling and at her death, six years ago, inherited her estate of $100,000.

CLOSE CALL

Of Thirteen Boys in a Railroad Wreck at Corning, O.

CORNING, March 23.—A frightful wreck occurred at the crossing of the railroads at this place. An engine and three of the coalcars were completely demolished. There were 13 boys on the three cars stealing a ride when they were hit.

Some just escaped by jumping into the creek, while others did not see the approaching engine until it was too late and were knocked into the creek with the cars. None, however, were seriously hurt. The engineer and fireman escaped without even a scratch.

The cause of the wreck was carelessness on the part of the engineer, as the target was thrown for fully five minutes before they hit.

Work of a Coward.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 23.—Considerable excitement was created here yesterday by the discovery of an attempt to blow up the large plant of the Chicago Sewer Pipe company of this city. The engineer had built his fire and was about to turn the water into the boilers when, for some reason, he examined them, and found that some person had forced an entrance to the boilerroom and let all the water out of the boilers. A discharged employee, who had sworn vengeance, is under suspicion.

Seigniorage Bill Still Unsigned.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—There is good authority for the statement that President Cleveland has not yet decided what he shall do with the seigniorage bill. He is said to incline toward a veto, and to take the position that the purposes of the act are now covered by the provisions of existing law, "the Sherman act" authorizing the coinage of the bullion, the secretary of the treasury being empowered to coin the seigniorage when it is earned.

Death of Colonel J. C. Degress.

AUSTIN, March 23.—Colonel J. C. Degress died here last night. He was a distinguished officer in the United States army during the late war and secretary of state under Governor Edmund J. Davis. He has long been prominent in the councils of the Republican party.

PROTECTION TO LABOR SYNONYMOUS WITH A REDUCTION OF WAGES.

It is an old saying that a poor excuse is better than none, remarks the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer. This may be true unless the excuse is so flagrantly false that nobody can be deceived by it. Nothing is more common than the reduction of the wages of labor by manufacturers upon the pretext that by reason of foreign competition such reduction is absolutely necessary, when upon an examination it is found to be a false pretense. Illustrations abound in almost every protracted industry. The American Axe and Tool Company recently cut the wages of its employees, giving as the reason the probable passage of the Wilson bill. Since the adoption of the McKinley law this company has several times reduced the pay of its working force. The high duties provided for in that law invited the organization of a trust. Fourteen factories were embraced in the trust under the name of the American Axe and Tool Company. The combination immediately advanced the price of axes $2 per dozen and reduced the pay of their employees. Was there such sharp competition by foreign manufacturers in our home market that an advance in the price and a reduction of wages were rendered necessary? On the contrary, even before the imposition of the increased duty it was the boast that American manufacturers of axes were supplying the world. They were exporting axes and underselling them in foreign countries. If they were selling their tools abroad in successful competition with the products of pauper labor, did they need protection in the home market? The tariff enabled the company to add an extra profit of $2 a dozen, and instead of dividing this extra profit with its workmen it put it in its own pockets and proceeded to reduce wages at the same time.

What an illustration of the avarice and the greed of capitalists! What an example of sympathy with workingmen! How shallow and hypocritical the pretense that the main purpose of a tariff is to secure to American workingmen an increased reward for their toil! The lobbies of Congress are crowded with the officers of corporations, their agents and attorneys, all pleading with tears the cause of workingmen. When their efforts were crowned with success and the protection of the McKinley law was vouchsafed to labor instead of an advance of wages there was a universal reduction! How long will it be before our toilers will discover that promised protection is a sham, a cheat, a swindle? Is the pertinent question of the Enquirer.

SPECIFIC AND AD VALOREM DUTIES.

Since the introduction of the Wilson Tariff bill much has been heard about specific and ad valorem duties, and Republicans have condemned the action of the Democrats in adopting the latter system. Hon. Roger Q. Mills has printed in one of the New York papers an interesting letter in which he explains the difference between ad valorem duties and specific rates on imported articles.

The ad valorem system, he contends, informs every citizen of the amount of tax imposed on each article, while the specific system conceals it. For example, horses may be taxed $30 per head. If the horse were worth $10, it would be 300 per cent. and an unreasonable tax, which would bring no revenue because such horses could not be imported, but it would protect the domestic raiser of such stock. We have that tax now under existing law, he continues, and it excludes all cow ponies and the Government loses the revenue it would get with a revenue duty. The tax on the quantity—the specific article—conceals from the people the fact that it is 300 per cent. on the value.

Another example given is that of pearl buttons. The specific tax on these little fellows is 2½ cents per card, but this is in fact a tax of 143 percent. That explains to the purchaser why pearl buttons took such a jump in price when the McKinley law went into effect, and the iniquity of the thing is, as this writer ascertained at the time from a dealer, that the greatest tax was placed upon the common grades, the article used by the poor. In conclusion, Mr. Mills says:

Everyone understands the ad valorem rate. All the taxes in all the States, counties and cities are ad valorem. All the commercial business of the world is carried on by value. Every purchase and sale of goods is by value, and it is the mores trifling with the common sense of the people to say that the duties can not be honestly collected when imposed by ad valorem rates. In 1846, when the Democratic party struck boldly out for tariff reform, President Polk urged ad valorem duties on Congress. Secretary Robert J. Walker pressed upon Congress the importance of abandoning specific duties and making a tariff for revenue with ad valorem duties. The great tariff of 1846 had not one specific duty in all its schedules. It brought such an excess of revenues to the Treasury that in 1857 another tariff had to be made, still further reducing duties, and that, like the tariff of 1846, was exclusively ad valorem.

There have always been some Democrats who advocated specific duties, but they are protectionists. They were guarding the interests of certain classes, not the interest of the masses. The Democratic masses to-day are for ad valorem duties, and to abandon that policy is to abandon the fight.

"There is much food for thought in what Mr. Mills says," remarks the Richmond (Va.) State. "Tariff taxes at best are far from being uniform. That system, therefore, which taxes each article according to its value is the best and the most equitable."

MR. WILLIAM C. DEMING, of Mt. Olivet, has bought an interest in the Warren (O.) Tribune, daily and weekly, and will assume editorial charge early in April. Mr. Deming has been editing the Tribune-Democrat for several months and has been giving his readers an exceedingly newsy and interesting paper. Success to him in his new field.

At Woodward & Shanklin's sale of horses at Lexington this week forty head were disposed of in two days, for $32,590, an average of over $800 a head. Now let the Ledger howl some more.

"There is no man so poor," says a protectionist contemporary, "that he will be spared paying a tax on sugar if he eats any of it." So the tariff is a tax, after all.

THE Superior Court has affirmed the case of Stephens & Co. versus the C. and O., taken up from Greenup County.

STATE TREASURER HALE, who recently inspected the branch penitentiary at Edyville, reports the prison in the best of running order, and says that a prison could not be better managed.

It is reported from Mt. Carmel that a man named Frank Kinney committed suicide one day this week by drowning himself in the North Fork. He had been mentally unbalanced for some time.

CUMMINS & REDMOND invite you to call on them if you want a good Easter dinner. Read their advertisement and see what they offer in the way of fresh vegetables. A fine line of oranges, bananas and apples always on hand.

MARTHA ANN LOUISE CHRISTIAN was in the Police Court this morning on a charge of petit larceny, and was held over to the Circuit Court. In default of $100 bail she was committed to jail. She stole a silver watch last fall and had given it to a colored man living at Flemingsburg. Chief of Police Ort located the stolen property yesterday and it was recovered.

A COUPLE of men claiming to be South Africans and giving their names as Londo and Chief Cohando applied to Mayor Cox yesterday for passes to Cincinnati. They said they were at the World's Fair, and had since been giving exhibitions over the country. Their manager deserted them on reaching this place and left them without funds. A man named Barreppo who was with them was given a pass to Portsmouth.

IN a letter to the Christian Guide from Allegheny, Pa., March 10th, the writer, T. S. Latimer, has the following to say of a former pastor of the Christian Church: "The Allegheny Church is taking on new glory since Pastor C. S. Lucas has come among us. The friendly feeling of all other churches has been greatly increased, the spirituality of our own members greatly quickened, and in a meeting just at flood tide, eighty-five additions, with a full house every night, which bids fair to make the number 150, and others to follow. As indefatigable work surely tells, Pastor Lucas can take confessions with heartfelt satisfaction from those whom he has visited in their homes, and who have learned to love him as he ministers to them in his whole-souled way in works of faith and labors of love. The pastors of our different churches delight to sit and listen to his eloquent discourses throughout the week evenings."

TWICE POSTPONED.

A Central Kentucky Couple Whose Union the Fates Seem to Oppose.

The fates seem to oppose the marriage of Rev. J. H. Williams, of Cynthiana, and Miss Edith Hamon, of Fennell, Scott County. March 7th was the date first agreed upon for the nuptials, but the bride-to-be was taken ill with the measles a few days before, necessitating a postponement of the wedding for one week.

Every arrangement was made for the ceremony on the day next fixed upon and a bridal trip had been mapped out to follow the nuptials, but the Georgetown Times says that the night before the wedding Mr. Williams was taken violently ill, with nervous prostration. He was unable to write to Miss Hamon, and she did not receive the intelligence until the next day at noon, while preparing for the ceremony. A number of persons had assembled at the church to witness the nuptials and others were on the way before it was known that there would be no wedding. No other day has been set for the marriage, but it will take place quietly at the bride's home, in the presence of only the immediate relatives, as soon as the groom is sufficiently recovered.

Messrs. Willson and Andrew January, of Flemingsburg, have returned home. They came down Wednesday evening to see the Home Minstrels.

Kentucky Politics.

Hon. Claude Desha, a well known Cynthiana politician, lawyer and farmer, says that Harrison County, although in the belt of country which it is supposed Cassius M. Clay, Jr., will carry for Governor, is not in fact for him, and that Hardin will probably get the vote of the county in the Democratic convention. He also says Harrison will support Hon. William Goebel for Judge of the Court of Appeals. Nearly all of the Cynthiana lawyers, he says, are pledged to Hon. Leslie T. Applegate, but the workers are for Goebel and will win for him without making much fuss about it. As to the race for Congress, the feeling in Harrison County is about equally divided between Paynter and Rolla K. Hart.

As Paynter is now out of the fight, it is to be presumed that Harrison will be solid for Hart.

Two Prolific Vines.

At Gaillac, in the South of France, says an exchange, there is a grapevine which, although only ten years from the cutting, has yielded as many as 1,287 bunches of fine fruit in a single year. There is but one other vine in existence that is known to excel this prolific shrub, and that is the historic vine at Hampton Court, England, which was planted in 1768. In one year this noted vine has borne 2,500 bunches. The fruit from this vine is kept for the exclusive use of Queen Victoria and her household, the surplus being made into wine for the same purpose.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Good advertising, good management and good treatment of customers should go hand in hand, and when either or both of the last named are wanting, the advertising should not be blamed for a lack of success. Judicious advertising can, and will accomplish a great deal, but it cannot offset the effects of bad management in other branches of the business.

KENTUCKY BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS

They Have $13,000,000 Loaned Out in This State, and Are Doing a Great Work.

"The Secretary of State, or that department of his office presided over by Mr. M. B. Morton," says the Frankfort Capital, "is preparing as complete a summary of the reports of the building and loan associations in Kentucky as the still incomplete reports from these organizations will permit of. This summary, made up from very full detailed reports by the officers of these associations will be exceedingly interesting to those who know or do not know of the big growth of this class of business in the past several years."

"An evidence of the immense business, if not great good done by them is contained in one remarkable showing of the summary. The various building and loan companies have loaned out in Kentucky $13,000,000, or more than one-third as much as all the State and private banks combined."

"When it is understood that nearly all of this money is invested in homes, being paid for by men who would otherwise never have homes, the good as well as big business being done by these companies appears."

"A most successful building and loan company claims, as the greatest credit for itself and larger shareholders, the fact that more Frankfort people have bought and built more homes since the association was organized than had been the case in any period of ten times the same length."

What is true of Frankfort on this subject is true of Maysville. Most of the homes built in this city of late years have been paid for through the building associations.

ABERDEEN Gretna Green: "Doctor Owens and Montgomery removed a cancerous tumor from the arm of Joseph Cheesoman, Sr., Tuesday. The operation was successful and the old gentleman stood it well."

A STORY founded upon the Pollard-Breckinridge scandal will soon be published by a Chicago firm, according to current reports at Louisville. The writing will be done chiefly by a young woman living at Louisville who is familiar with the Breckinridge family history and the defendant.

DR. MONTGOMERY, of Aberdeen, returned from a professional call at a late hour a few nights ago, and was surprised to find his office lighted up. The Gretna Green says: "On investigating it proved to be a select card party of five whom the Doctor covered with a revolver and made deliver the key with which they got in."

MR. J. W. FITZGERALD, of the Keith-Schroeder Harness Company, is out in Indiana on a trip for the house. The company has put on an additional force of hands of late to keep up with their orders. PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

A Few Bills Passed by the Senate, But Nothing Done in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The bill for the purchase of a site for the new government printing office consumed nearly the whole morning hour and much to the surprise of nearly everybody an amendment providing for the purchase of what is known as the "Mahone site" was passed. Notice for a motion to reconsider the vote was given, however, and at some future time the subject will be reopened.

The McCarrahan bill, which was to have been taken up, went over until Monday.

The bill for the extermination of the Russian thistle shared a like fate.

Mr. Sherman introduced a resolution, directing the committee on judiciary to investigate the charges of "simulation" of United States coins or of the coining of standard silver dollars, but it went over under objections.

After a brief executive session the senate adjourned until Monday.

The House Filibusters.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The house spent the entire day in filibustering over the O'Neill-Joy contested election case from the St. Louis district. The report of the committee on elections in favor of unseating Mr. Joy, Republican, and the Republicans are determined that this shall not be accomplished unless the Democrats produce their own quorum. For five hours they filibustered and kept the house deadlocked. The highest number of Democratic votes cast during the day was 166—13 short of a quorum. An unsuccessful attempt was made to adjourn over Good Friday.

FEDERAL OFFICES IN CINCINNATI

"Prince of Peace" Dead.

AUBURN, Me., March 23.—Elias Cove, the self-styled Immanuel, the Prince of Peace, who for years has been a picturesque figure in the streets of Auburn, is dead at the age of 85. In all kinds of weather he was to be seen in the streets dressed in white cotton trousers, red broadcloth cape overcoat and a picturesque hat. He carried a palm leaf fan and an old umbrella. He was never out of doors without them.

Captain Thayer Missing.

GREENFIELD, Ind., March 23.—The disappearance of Captain E. P. Thayer is creating much gossip here. His whereabouts are unknown, unless his nearest relatives know of his movements. Captain Thayer, previous to his departure, was a popular and influential citizen engaged in profitable business. He went away on the 9th inst. Two years ago he married a young lady of Franklin, O.

Burglars at Logansport.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 23.—The residence of Samuel S. Helvie, auditor of Cass county, was visited by burglars last night, who carried off money and jewelry aggregating $400. Isaac Stern discovered a masked burglar in his room during the night, and attempted to grapple with him, when the fellow drew a revolver and escaped.

Drunk Poisoned Coffee.

ALTON, Ill., March 23.—In the upper story of a tenement house here Mrs. Mary King, an aged widow, is dead and George Leech is seriously ill as the result of drinking coffee which had been poisoned. It is supposed that Mrs. King put the poison in the coffee before making it, but her reason for so doing is not known.

Admiral Benham's Successor.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Commodore Kirkland arrived at the navy department at noon yesterday, and when he left the department, after an interview with Secretary Herbert, he carried with him orders placing him in command of the South Atlantic station, to succeed Admiral Benham, who has gone to Bluefields.

Strictly a Party Vote.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The contested election case of English vs. Hilborn, Third California district, was finally disposed of by the committee on elections yesterday, by the adoption of the report presented by Chairman Brown, favoring the seating of the contestant, English. The vote was strictly a party one.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 23.—Congressman W. L. Wilson and party arrived here yesterday afternoon in a special car from Loreon, Mex., where Mr. Wilson was taken several weeks ago for his health. While thin and colorless, Mr. Wilson's condition is much improved, and he will remain here until he has sufficiently recovered his strength to resume his duties at Washington.

Young Business Man Suicides.

CENTRAL CITY, Ky., March 23.—Joseph W. Claggett, a prominent young business man of this place, and town treasurer, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the heart. He was a member of the firm of McDowell & Company and was highly respected. No cause could be discovered for the act or evidence that would indicate a previous intention.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

Items Picked Up by the Bulletin's Correspondents in Mason and Elsewhere.

VANCEBURG, LEWIS COUNTY.

Fine weather for March.

The hotels seem to be on a boom.

J. B. Harrison is repairing and remodeling the St. Nicholas, and T. H. Carter is building a fine three-story brick hotel on the corner of Second and Main streets.

Clark Bros' drugstore was broken into Wednesday night, but nothing was taken so far as known at this writing. The burglars broke in at the back door. They opened the cash drawer, but failed to get anything.

Mr. Hart, of Flemingsburg, was in the city Thursday, mixing among the laithlul. He thinks his prospects are good for the nomination for Congress. It was his first visit to this place.

The tobacco crop is quite large in this county, but the tobacco buyers claim that the quality is not very good this year.

CONCORD, LEWIS COUNTY.

J. K. Carr is sick with the grip.

Maudie Burns left Monday to visit in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Thomas has vacated the "Hilsey House."

Elias Seerest has moved into the Devore property.

The weather prophets will have to predict again.

There is a fair crop of peach blossoms in this locality.

Miss Lula Carr has gone to Cincinnati to engage in dress-making.

Miss Daisy Boyd, of Berry's Station, is visiting her brother Andy Boyd.

These fine March days are not in accordance with the former forecasts.

Jim Thompson has returned to Huntington, W. Va., after a week's visit to his family here.

Elder Jeff Garrison, of Ashland, is in town and will preach in the Union Church several evenings while here.

Again on the 11th, instant, the death angel visited our village and took from our midst Bertha L., wife of Harry Seerest. Deceased was a daughter of Elder A. Wood, and was 21 years and three months old; was married May 15, 1892, but while in the first sweet bloom of womanhood consumption fastened its relentless hold upon her, and she sank into an early grave. Her husband and an infant son of seven months survive her. She also leaves behind father, mother, two sisters and a brother to survive her loss. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their great loss.

Hart's Winning Fight.

The Louisville Times says editorially: "The retirement of Mr. Paynter makes assurance of Rolla Hart's election to Congress doubly sure. It has been stated that Colonel Northrup would be a candidate in case he missed the Pension Agent appointment, but Mr. Hart has for some time had the nomination in a sling."

Does Farming Pay?

Exchange: "Instances have been known where as much as $1,000 per acre have been secured from one acre of strawberries, but such results are an exception, except in cases where growers near cities struck the market early."

For a good smoke, the "La Rosetta," "Key West," also "The Queen of the Turf," the famous "Nancy Hanks" cigars.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

River News.

The river is rising again as a result of the heavy rains the past few days.

Captain Sam Pennyweight says there is no truth in the report that he will enter a boat in the Vanceburg trade.

The new City of Louisville made her trip trial at Louisville Wednesday. No special effort was made to test her speed, but she made sixteen miles an hour, and it is expected will be able to make from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour as soon as her machinery gets to working smoothly. She will come up to Cincinnati Sunday for her furniture.

It May Do as Much For You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At J. James Wood's drug store.

Only $1.50 Round Trip.

Don't forget the C. and O. excursion to Cincinnati Wednesday, March 28th.
